City Bible Forum Brisbane – Women’s evangelist and trainer

The City Bible Forum seeks to share the great news of Jesus with city workers to win the city for Jesus. The City Bible Forum mobilises and equips Christians in their life and witness at work. The City Bible Forum also engages workers in the city with the big questions of life with the goal of establishing believers in a biblically based fellowship.

We currently have around 60-65 Christians meeting in prayer teams, 20 coming to weekly lunch time forums and hundreds of contacts in the city. We partner with around 10 churches in Brisbane in this ministry.

We would love to add a woman to the team to:
1) mobilise Christian women to see their work place as a mission field
2) equip Christian women for this vital ministry
3) work as an evangelist to the many non-Christian women in the city

Being at the sharp edge of evangelism, this role requires a person to spiritually depend on God and constantly grow themselves in the likeness of Jesus through prayer and reading of the Scriptures.

Employment terms

The role is currently 3 days per week, paid, with the possibility of becoming full-time. The salary package is $30,000 per annum.

Role in Detail

Mobilise

Mobilise Christian women to see their work place as a mission field. Primarily this would involve meeting with individual Christian women to connect with them, and encourage them to be part of the ministry. The end point of this is to have a Christian join an Evangelistic Prayer Team and start to evangelise in their work place.

Around 20% of energy and time would go toward this.

Equipping

Work with the ministry director and the equipping co-ordinator, to develop women in their evangelism in their work places.

1) Lead Evangelistic Prayer Teams and through these grow Christians in their evangelistic zeal and skills.
2) Meet with individual Christians who are part of the Evangelistic Prayer Team network to grow, encourage and equip them in evangelism.
3) Occasionally run women specific training and contribute to the wider training program.

Around 30% of energy and time would go toward this.
Engaging
Evangelise in the city through meeting with individuals, one to one, working with the City Bible Forum team to develop the evangelistic program, and speaking evangelistically, if the candidate wishes to pursue this and as opportunities are found or created. This part of the role would take around 35% of energy and time.

Establishing
Meet with enquirers and young Christians to establish them in the gospel. This would be meeting either individually or in a small group format. This part of the role would start at around 10% of energy and time. But God willing it will grow.

Fundraising & Communication
The other aspect of this role would be communication, administration, staff development and some fundraising. This part of the role would take around 5% of energy and time in the first year.

Salary
The position would be for a salary package of initially $30,000 per annum which includes superannuation and non reportable benefits. It will be reviewed each year according to need and funding. The preferred commencement date would be mid 2015 however it is open to negotiation for the suitable candidate.

Formal Qualifications
It is desirable for the Women’s evangelist and trainer to have a minimum of 1 year of Theological training at a recognized Theological College or Institution.

Skills
- Commitment to reaching out to others with the gospel of Jesus Christ
- Evangelical Christian commitment.
- Expertise in bible study preparation and competence regarding foundational theological issues
- Confident written and verbal communicator
- Confidence in praying with others and competence in engaging city workers
- A ‘can do’ attitude
- Good organisational and administrative skills
- Workplace experience (ideally in a corporate or government setting)
