

Northern District Chinese Christian Church Sydney
北區雪梨華人基督教會

... is seeking Chinese Pastors

Northern District Chinese Christian Church Sydney (NDCCCS) is an inter-denominational church which has been serving the Marsfield / Epping community for over 30 years. There are 4 Sunday services in two locations with regular attendance of around 350 across our 3 Chinese services (2 Cantonese services and 1 Mandarin service), around 100 in the English service and 90 children. We are passionately committed to knowing Christ and growing disciples.

We are looking for Cantonese-speaking Pastor(s) who will provide godly and wise leadership for our Chinese congregations. We would love to shape the role around the right applicant to oversee the Chinese Services in discipling and training the leaders of this ministry.

Essential Selection Criteria

- Have experience as a Pastor (previous experience in Chinese churches in Australia highly desirable)
- Be a mature Christian and ideally would have a theology degree or diploma from a recognised theological institution, candidate graduating this year will also be considered
- Be a team leader with a pastoral heart and demonstrate experience leading a team ministry
- Fluent in Cantonese. Mandarin-speaking skills would be highly desirable

The applicant will also work closely with our Senior Minister, team of 5 ministers and pastors at NDCCCS, as well as leaders in thinking through and implementing discipleship among the congregation.

The successful applicant will be actively involved in preaching, teaching, training and caring, as appropriate.

Applications consisting of a cover letter, resumé and appropriate references should be sent to the Pastor Searching Committee at psc@ndcccs.org.au before 19 September, 2021.

Enquiries: Rev David Truong
Phone: 0413 943 412
Email: david.truong@ndcccs.org.au